C. L. Taitano Elementary School “Boardwalk Art Show”
January 17, 2024

Tiyan, Guam – The Life Readiness Project of the Division of Curriculum and Instruction, Guam Department of Education (GDOE), is pleased to present the "Boardwalk Art Show" by C.L. Taitano Elementary School. This art show will showcase the creative talents of the students and teachers at the school's cafeteria on Wednesday, January 17, at 9:00AM.

The C.L. Taitano Elementary School is proud to present the "Boardwalk Art Show", a display of the creative talents of its 435 students and over 500 pieces of artwork as you walk through that hallway. The art specialist, Gisela Guile, taught the students various forms of art and helped them express their emotions through artistic interpretation.

Principal Corina Paulino expressed her gratitude to Ms. Guile for her dedication and hard work in educating the students at the school. She praised all teachers for their innovative and engaging teaching methods, their positive and supportive attitude, and their outstanding results in improving the academic performance and well-being of her pupils.

Dr. Erik Swanson, GDOE Superintendent, praised the C.L. Taitano team for their impressive display of student artwork. He said that the exhibition, which featured over 500 pieces of art, demonstrated the creativity and self-expression of the students. He congratulated the teachers and staff for their dedication and support of the arts program.
