September 22, 2017

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Understanding Your Child's Rights under IDEA - Session with Gail ImObersteg, Esq.

The Guam Department of Education (GDOE)'s Division of Special Education (SPED) and Compliance Monitoring Office (CMO) would like to invite parents to participate in a session with Gail ImObersteg, Esq. on Saturday, September 30, 2017, 9 am - 12 pm, at UOG's School of Business Bldg., Room #131.

Gail ImObersteg, Esq. has worked in the area of Special Education for 40 years as a teacher, administrator, trainer and consultant. Her expertise in Special Education law and familiarity with various state Special Education systems is enhanced by the state and national perspective she developed as a high level state administrator in California working on issues of national and state education policy, legislation and regulation.

Space is limited, if you are interested, please confirm attendance no later than Tuesday, September 26, 2017 by contacting Laura Taisipic at 300-1322 or email sped@gdoe.net.

If you're in need of any accommodations, contact Ms. Taisipic by September 26, 2017.

- Attachment: Flyer

- End of Statement -