

Adrienne Francisco is an undergraduate student pursuing a Bachelors of Business Administration in Accounting degree at the University of Guam. He is currently a full-time student and an active member of the Junior Accounting Society. Adrienne has served as an Audit intern in Spring 2019 and is prospected to graduate within the same time. In his previous years, he has gained retail experience working at Tommy Hilfiger and has represented Guam in boxing. His hobbies include fitness and competitive sports.